

creating community connections

respiteservices.com is a centralized access point for information on respite services for individuals of all ages with a developmental disability and/or Autism as well as children with a physical disability within the city of Toronto. We provide families, individuals and professionals with information and connections to respite options both in and out of home (including camp & Independent Respite Providers).

Knowledgeable, hardworking and caring support respite providers ensure needs of caregivers are met while loved ones are well supported and achieving their own personal goals.

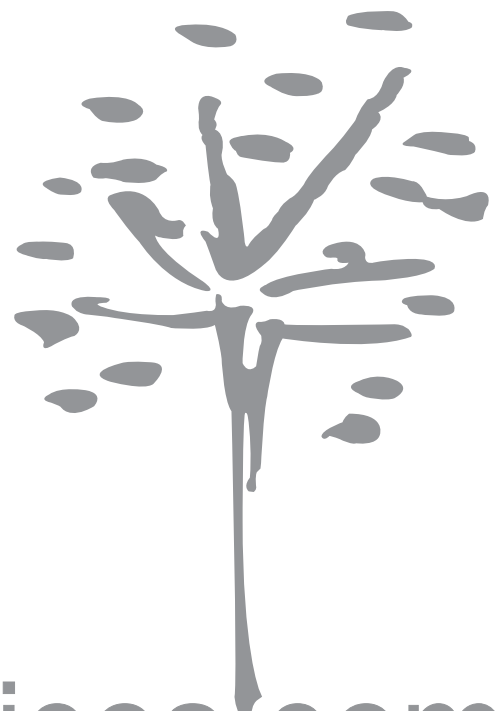

The CHAP Program is an online registry which connects families of individuals with disabilities with screened independent support workers to help individuals engage in their community and provide opportunities for respite.

Independent Respite Providers

- Are committed to making a difference in the lives of others
- Are people with experience or interest in supporting individuals with disabilities
- Are punctual, reliable and respectful of the family/individual
- Are committed to providing quality life experiences in home and in the community for they support
- Are independent support workers
- Have a variety of skills and experience levels
- Have a clear Police Reference Check (dated within the last 6 months)
