

Two Minute Drill

Imagine that you are one of the people who help support _____ and you have an emergency that means you suddenly have to leave. The person who will "fill in" for you has arrived and you have two minutes to give advice, suggestions or tips about how best to support _____.

What would you say?
